Dantzick, July 31, N. S.

THE Elector of Saxony, ſtyled King Auguſtus of Poland, ſet out from hence Yeſterday to return to Dreſden: Before his Departure he held a Council of ſeveral of the Poliſh Nobility, in which it was reſolved to call within Six Weeks a general Diet of Pacification, and to give Time to thoſe of King Staniſlaus's Party to make their Submiſſion, in Default of which their Eſtates will be ſeized, and their Perſons proceeded againſt.

Hague, Aug. 10, N. S. The Aſſembly of the States of Holland remains fixed for To-morrow, the greateſt Part of the Members being already come hither. It is adviſed from Dreſden, that on the 2d Inſtant their Elector arrived there in good Health from Dantzick. Letters from the Upper Rhine relate, that on the 1ſt Inſtant a Detachment of the French Troops ſurpriſed the Caſtle of Nieder-Ulm, within two Leagues of Mentz, making the Garriſon, conſiſting of 200 Men, Priſoners of War. It was apprehended at Mentz, that the French intended to beſiege that Place, and therefore all Diſpoſitions were making for a vigorous Defence. On the 2d Prince Eugene, with the Imperial Army, encamped between Manheim and Heidelberg, on the Side of the Necker; the next Day the Army paſſed that River over ſeveral Bridges, and marched to Ladenbourg; whence they were to proceed to Windholm, and were expected in the Neighbourhood of Mentz by the 8th.

Whitehall, Auguſt 3.

On Thurſday laſt at One a-Clock, Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies to his Majeſty, attended by Three of his Majeſty's Coaches with Six Horſes, came to the Truſtees Office for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, and proceeded from thence to his Majeſty's Palace at Kenſington, with Tomo Chachi, Micho of Yamacraw, by Interpretation King, Senauki his Wife, and Tooanahowi his Nephew, Umpychi, one of the Chief of Pallachocalas, Hilliſpylli a chief Warrior, and three Attendants, beſides his Interpreter; they were received by the Yeomen of the Guard in their Guard-Chamber; and above Stairs by his Majeſty's Band of Gentlemen Penſioners with their Battle-Axes: His Majeſty being ſeated, they were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain to his Majeſty, and Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies; when Tomo Chachi made the following Speech.

THIS Day I ſee the Majeſty of your Face, the Greatneſs of your Houſe, and the Number of your People. I am come for the Good of the whole Nation called the Creeks, to renew the Peace which long ago they had with the Engliſh. I am come over in my old Days: tho' I cannot live to ſee any Advantage to my ſelf, I am come for the Good of the Children of all the Nations of the Upper and of the Lower Creeks, that they may be inſtructed in the Knowledge of the Engliſh.

Theſe are the Feathers of the Eagle, which is the ſwifteſt of Birds, and who flieth all round our Nations. Theſe Feathers are a Sign of Peace in our Land, and have been carried from Town to Town there, and we have brought them over to leave with you, O Great King, as a Sign of everlaſting Peace.

O Great King, whatſoever Words you ſhall ſay unto me, I will tell them faithfully to all the Kings of the Creek Nations.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to give this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I AM glad of this Opportunity of aſſuring you of my Regard for the People from whom you come, and am extreamly well pleaſed with the Aſſurances you have brought me from them, and accept very gratefully this Preſent as an Indication of their good Diſpoſition

...ion to me and my People. I shall always be ready to cultivate a good Correſpondence between them and my own Subjects, and ſhall be glad of any Occaſion to ſhew you a Mark of my particular Friendſhip and Eſteem.

They were afterwards introduced to her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain, and Sir Clement Cottrell, and her Majeſty received them ſeated in her Gallery; to whom Tomo Chachi made the following Speech.

I AM glad to ſee this Day, and the Opportunity of ſeeing the Mother of this great People.

As our People are joined with your Majeſty's, we do humbly hope to find you the common Mother and Protectreſs of us and all our Children.

To which her Majeſty was pleaſed to return a moſt gracious Anſwer.

They were afterwards introduced to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, in his own Apartment; then to his Royal Highneſs the Duke in his; and to their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſs Royal and of Orange, the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, Mary, and Louiſa.

Which ended, they were reconducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, in the King's three Coaches, to their Lodgings at the Georgia Office.

Whitehall, Auguſt 3.

Whereas I Peter de Bordes de Bercheres, Eſq; Eldeſt Lieutenant in his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Guards, was, on Monday the 8th of July laſt, at Nine a-Clock at Night, aſſaulted in the Mall in St. James's Park, and wounded in the Arm by John Langley, of Colonel Mordaunt's Company, in his Majeſty's Third Regiment of Foot Guards, and robbed of a rich Purſe embroidered with Gold and Silver, with this Motto, Celui qui donne l'aumone eſt beni de Dieu, containing 26 French new Louis d'Ors, and a fine antique Gold Medal of Cæſar Gordianus, on the reverſe Side whereof a Victory with this Motto, Victoria Auguſta; and whereas the ſaid John Langley has ſince deſerted, I the ſaid Peter de Bordes de Bercheres do hereby promiſe a Reward of Three Guineas to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend the ſaid John Langley, in order to his being proſecuted according to Law. NB. The ſaid John Langley, of the County of Bedford, Labourer, is Five Foot eight Inches three Quarters high, about Thirty two Years of Age, or thereabouts, of a plain Phyſiognomy, flat Noſed, black and thick Hair, black and ſwarthy Eye brows, thick Lipped, black Beard, of a reddiſh Complexion, a little Sun-burnt, and walks ſomething aukardly. And whereas George Stacy, of about Twenty ſix Years of Age, wearing a light brown bob Wig, and of a ſmall Stature, Shoemaker, living in Three King Courts in Chandos-ſtreet, is an Accomplice of the ſaid Robbery, having concealed Part of the ſtolen Goods, and has ſince abſconded himſelf; I do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Guinea and a half to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend the ſaid George Stacy, ſo that he may be proſecuted according to Law.

Peter de Bordes de Bercheres, Eſq; at Mr. Le Sack's, in Leiceſter-ſtreet, London.

Admiralty Office, July 27, 1734.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for Relief of poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Widows as aforeſaid, whoſe Husbands died on or ſince the 30th of Auguſt, 1732, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, and alſo with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle ſuch Widows to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe: But ſuch Widows as live at too great Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Eſq; at this Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And there being Ground to hope, that the Governors of the ſaid Charity may be impowered to diſtribute ſome Relief to the Widows of ſuch Sea Officers who died before the 30th of Auguſt, 1732, provided their Circumſtances come within the Rules thereof; theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Widows to repair or ſend to the above-named Places, that they may be provided with the proper Certificates accordingly. And the Court of Aſſiſtants do hereby give Notice, that they ſhall meet at this Office on Tueſday the Tenth of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive and adjuſt the Claims of all ſuch Widows as ſhall be qualified according to the ſaid Rules and Orders.

Eaſt India Houſe, Auguſt 1, 1734.
